"The constitutional judge said, 'It is essential that the constitution and its provisions and basic elements should be followed. Otherwise, the country will be dismembered and the law of the country will be rendered in the dust,'" the official handout said. The official said the central government had not filed any reply to the observation order. "It is understood that the Kashmir Committee's recommendation — 'auto-delineation' — has been sent to the office of the prime minister for approval," he said. "But nothing has happened so far." The original government notification on May 10 said that President Pervez Musharraf had constituted a committee which recommended that the "issue of Jammu and
